

Southern California Community Forum and Learning Camp

RESTORING A HARMONIOUS RELATIONSHIP WITH THE LAND AND EACH OTHER

November 7, 2026 • 9:00 am–7 pm PT

Los Coyotes Reservation Campground

2300 Camino San Ignacio, Warner Springs, CA 92086

>>>> AGENDA <<<<

9:00–9:30 am Registration

9:30–10:30 am Coffee and Light Breakfast

10:30–11:00 am Welcome and Blessing

11:00 am–12:30 pm Tobacco Garden Tour & Processing Demonstration
Guided tour of the tobacco garden with a processing demonstration

12:30–1:30 pm Lunch

1:30–3:00 pm Knowledge Sharing:
Ceremonial Use of Fire and Cultural Burning
Sacred fire tending, fire as relationship, prescribed burn demonstration and discussion

3:00–3:45 pm Walk or Run
Restore your spirit through a run, walk, or take rest

3:45–5:00 pm Woodblocking and Traditional Clay Working
Concurrent stations, participants can move between woodblocking and clay working after each presenter provides an overview

5:00–5:45 pm Native Foodways
Interactive presentation and food tasting, leading into the evening meal

5:45–7:00 pm Dinner, Songs & Storytelling Around the Campfire
Dinner served fireside accompanied by storytelling. This space is held for sharing and honoring our individual and family stories

TRIBAL COMMUNITY COORDINATING CENTER
a project of etr.

Contact Nicole Graumann at nicole.graumann@etr.org

Visit us at ca-tccc.org